

The Past President:

1. Supports the President and the Committee, particularly in supplying historical relevance to discussions.
2. When requested, acts with the President as an arbitrator and seeks to establish a compromise if there are conflicting opinions within the Committee.
3. When requested, assists the President in assuring that Committee Members comply with their guidelines and perform their duties.
4. When requested, acts as Spokesperson for ETAS in the President's absence.
5. Receives a lump sum for the first year of the two-year term and subsequently submits any expense claims to the Treasurer within 2 months of incurred expenses.
6. Should not normally miss more than 1 meeting a year the first year of the two-year term.
7. The second year of the term reads the minutes and replies if necessary, but isn't expected to attend Committee meetings.
8. Assists ETAS during the two-year term in any way possible.