The Association shall hold a General Meeting (AGM) once a year, either in person or online. 11. An Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) may be convened by the Executive Committee or by one fifth of the members. An EGM may be held either in person or online.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To avoid the impact on the organisation of the AGM, and thus the business of ETAS, by any restrictions on the assembly of groups of people. 2. To widen participation in GMs, allowing all members to take part, whether or not they are able to attend the Annual Conference. 3. Allow more time to be scheduled to discuss motions and any other additional topics, thus ensuring members' views are better heard.
